KIDSHINE'S PHILOSOPHY

KidShine is committed to helping develop self-confidence, creativity and character. One way this happens is by allowing camp participants to choose what they want to do in the final performance. Whether it's a speaking part, solo, dance, instrument, puppet, or scenery painting, we want each individual to experience the joy of using their gifts to praise God. The atmosphere of the day camp is fun, high-energy and encouraging, and the experience ends in a final performance on Friday evening that is truly amazing.
